

RECORDING TESTIMONIES & INSIGHTS OF SURVIVORS

Our goal is to provide a platform on which survivors of religious, ritual, and institutional abuse can testify to their experiences, the impact the crimes had on their lives, and the positive steps they've taken to survive and heal from the trauma.

GUEST REVIEW

"I thought I was going to be nervous. It's so interesting. If I know I'm talking to people that are not going to blow me off, I'm okay." JIM LEBOEUF Survivor of Ritual Abuse

Schedule a time to meet on Zoom and we'll record your testimony, interview you, casually converse, or a combination of all three. We'll gladly protect your identity if you wish. We'll send you recording transcripts, and will delete any parts you request.

PUBLISH YOUR STORY

We'll create a web page in your name, but you direct what's included. You may submit any materials you have - videos, your written testimony, documents, photographs, links, etc. Once published, it can be shared on social media and via email and text.

ATTACH YOUR AFFIDAVIT

If you'd like to sign and attach an affidavit to your testimony, we can guide you in this simple process.
